

THE SEVENTH
SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

24th February 2019

Family Offering Envelopes

This weekend you can collect your new box of family offering envelopes after Mass. If anyone would like to receive a box in order to contribute to the parish please do not hesitate to ask either through the office or next week after Mass. Standing order forms are also available. All money that comes into the parish from these envelopes stays within the parish and helps towards the running and upkeep of our church.

Gospel Choir

Next Saturday March 2nd we have the Gospel Choir Go Leír singing at the 6.30pm Mass.

Children's liturgy

The parish pastoral council members are exploring ways of enhancing the involvement of children in the Masses. No definite plans are yet in place. If you would like to be involved please contact the parish office.

Baptisms will take place on the following Sundays at 12.30pm
March 10th and March 24th
April 14th and April 28th

Welcome into our faith
Community all children who will be baptised this Sunday.

Couples intending to marry are required to give at least three months' notice to the priests of the parish, whether the wedding will take place inside or outside the parish, so that the pre-marriage papers can be completed.

Take up Something for Lent

This year for Lent the Parish has decided to read and discuss Pope Francis's book, 'Rejoice and be Glad', we will do this over 5 weeks. This will take the format of a book club where you read a chapter at home and meet as a group to discuss it the next week

Why not give it a try?! For more information together with guidelines for discussion and tips for reading the book come along to our introduction session on Thursday 28th February in St Colmcille's Parish, Parochial House, Seatown

Road, at 2.30pm. Books will be supplied, and tea and coffee will be served
Parishioners from St Finian's Rivervalley and St Cronan's, Brackenstown are welcome to attend
