Volunteers Needed

The parish is looking for new volunteers to take part in different groups within the parish. The River Valley Parish Pastoral Council very much hope that our parish will be able to rely on your goodwill and support. A booklet has been published explaining the role of each group within the parish. This booklet will be available to you the people next weekend to take home and have a read about all the great work that our groups do in order to keep your parish up and running in a way that serves our community. Please take one home and see what difference you could make by volunteering. You will make a difference!

Confirmation 2018

The Enrolment Ceremony for Confirmation will take place next Saturday 7th. October at 6.30pm Mass. We invite all family members and parish community to celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit into our young peoples' lives.
