THE FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 3RD JULY 2016

‘PEACE TO THIS HOUSE’

OUR LADY QUEEN OF HEAVEN

MR. MATT MC CORMACK

Last weekend we celebrated the retirement of Matt McCormack after 30 years of service as one of our voluntary sacristans at the Airport Church.

As a community we joined together in thanking God for Matt's generous commitment. Following the 11am. Sunday Mass we made a presentation to Matt on behalf of us all and celebrated with a coffee morning in the church atrium. It was great to see so many of our community present on the day. We are truly blessed with so many willing, generous, cheerful helpers.

Matt is indeed one of the founding fathers of the airport church community, having been involved since his earliest days refuelling aircraft from DC-3s to Constellations, in the celebration of Mass at the airfield and in the building and maintaining of our church here as a place of faith and welcome for all who come to the Airport. Matt also served as a driver for the Cardinal and our Archbishop, and brought great dignity and indeed style, whether he was serving Mass on the altar or organising in the sacristy. Thank You Matt.
