

The Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary 8th August 2021

On Saturday next 7th August at the 6:00 PM Vigil Mass in the Pro-Cathedral Archbishop Okolo, the Apostolic Nuncio, on behalf of Pope Francis, will impose the Pallium on Archbishop Dermot Farrell as Metropolitan.

A Pallium is a vestment made of lamb's wool and is blessed by the Pope on the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul. It consists of a narrow circular band placed around the shoulders with a short lappet hanging from the front and back. When worn over Mass vestments, the Pallium symbolises an Archbishop's communion with the Bishop of Rome and his authority and responsibility to care for the flock entrusted to him.

Archbishop Farrell will be principal celebrant and homilist. The Mass will be concelebrated by the Apostolic Nuncio and Bishop Denis Nulty representing the Suffragan Sees of Kildare & Leighlin and Ossory. The Mass can be viewed live stream on the following link

THANK YOU

Thank you for all your donations to the parish. We ask that you please keep using the envelopes provided for the Sunday collections and for the upkeep of the church. We really appreciate all your kindness and generosity.

Thank you to the Parish Pastoral Council who organised the Grandparents celebration and to all the families that took time out to spend with the Lord in prayer. We continue to pray for all Grandparents and elderly in our parish. We thank the Lord for the wisdom and knowledge that they have passed on to us.

Parish Office

Please note that the parish office is open. We ask that if you could phone or email Steph before coming to the office it would be very much appreciated.

Confession is available every day after all Masses

Adoration will take place every Friday
5pm to 6pm

Jesus will bless you, your family, and the whole world for this hour of faith you spend with Him in the Blessed Sacrament. "Blessed are they who do not see and yet believe..." "Faith can move mountains..." "What is needed is trust..." "Behold I come to make all things new." (Jn 20:29; Mk 11:23; Mk 5:36; Rev 21:5)

Couples intending to marry are required to give at least three months notice to the priests of the parish, whether the wedding will take place inside or outside the parish, so that the pre-marriage papers can be completed.

Baptisms are taking place in the parish with restrictions. We still have availability during the month of August. If you have a query or would like to book a Baptism email the parish office at
