

Twenty Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
29th September 2019

Since the passing of the abortion bill, many good people have held vigil at centres where abortions are being performed.

Now, the first 40 Days for Life campaign will take place between 25th September until 3rd November across the road from the National Maternity Hospital, in Holles Street, Dublin.

The organisers say: "Contrary to what secular media is claiming, 40 Days for Life is not a protest, it is a group of Christians gathering to pray to end abortion, which is happening in the National Maternity Hospital in Dublin.
"We are praying because abortion is overwhelming, it ends the life of a human being and it causes a woman to think she has no other option than to pay a doctor to end the life of her child.

"In this great hopelessness, God is the answer, his joy, his love and his mercy," they said.

40 Days for Life say that while the media like to use buzz words like 'protest', 'harassment' etc, the reality is that will be peacefully praying, which is a constitutional right in this country.

"We are expressing our faith in a public manner and praying for the most innocent and vulnerable in society, the unborn baby," they say.

40 Days for Life is a cross-denominational, faith-based effort made up of two key components:

- Prayer and fasting: Inviting people of faith throughout our city to join together for 40 days of fervent prayer and fasting for an end to abortion
- Peaceful vigil: Standing for life through a 40-day peaceful, prayerful, public witness across the road from the National Maternity hospital from 7am until 7pm. Only signs supplied by 40 Days for life will be permitted, no other objects or signs will be allowed.
