

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
30TH July 2017

"Thy Kingdom come"

What Jesus is asking us to pray is, "May the Kingdom that obtains in heaven come about on earth". That means that the right order of love, nonviolence, peace etc. that obtain among the angels and saints in heaven, obtain here as there. In the Mass when we say, "May our voices be one with theirs," we are talking about the voices of the angels as they sing the praise of God. We are praying that we be harmonised among ourselves as the angels are in heaven. "Your kingdom come here as there," that's what we are praying for.

"Thy will be done." The world as we know it is a place where God's will is not done. My will is done. The will of powerful people is done. We say to our Father "May Your will be done, what You want, may that happen here. Think of all the social, political, economic, and cultural implications of those words next time you say the Lord's prayer.
